Take a deep breath.

A really big lung filler.

Can you smell that?

The trees, the greenery, the great outdoors.

It's glorious isn't it?

Now imagine running the largest annual event dedicated to all things outdoorsy.

Yep, you.

Best bit, you're the boss. All eyes are on you as you're the person directing the deliverables, marketing plan, sales strategy, speakers, content, and everything in between.

Biggest part of your day will be getting sponsors to part with their money plus exhibitors on the show floor as 20,000 people walk past their stand.

But that's the part you love. The commercial side of things. Yes, you like everyone listening to your ideas and implementing your plans but the buzz of people spending money to be part of your show, well there's nothing like that is there.

This show has everything. From camping to rock climbing, kayaking to Bushcraft, and even open water swimming to caving. The latest technology, the best gear, the coolest brands and the celebrities who we all know, will be under your roof and in the press.

Every year the outdoors community heads to this show. Your show.

You will oversee the operational delivery teams, support marketing and content teams, plus work with the Group CEO and MD on strategy and direction.

But most importantly, lead the sales team to ensure exhibitors exhibit and sponsors sponsor.

This Global Exhibition business is known for its health and wellbeing focus and is one of the most progressive players in the market due to their culture and team ethos.

If you want to be part of something bigger and get that warm tingly feeling when a sale goes through that also does good for a wider purpose, click apply and let's have a confidential chat.

Who knows where it will take you.

Don't worry if your CV isn't up to date, we can deal with that later.

Oh, I also run a £1k recommend a friend scheme, so please feel free to share with your connections.
