It's where you thrive. Cool headed, speed of thought and solution ready.

When someone is dropping millions on a special occasion, a director's conference or their dog's birthday (true story), they literally want their cake and eat it.

But OMG the buzz you get from pulling these things off is like nothing else in the industry.

The pace of things is only matched by the adrenaline rush.

Problem is, you're a bit stuck.

You know this market inside out. You've worked alongside and for demanding clients for ages, but you've never taken the lead role.

You've never had the chance to do things the way you know they should be done.

Sure, you know how to smile and nod when the insta/tik tok influencer, bridezilla or CEO douchebag thinks they know best but underneath, you know what needs to be done and as you're the real boss, you'll go ahead and do it.

This £10m t/o, 60 headcount business has been around for over 30 years and has started to build a name for themselves in a growing market.

It's an exciting time to be joining the team as they need your background and experience to help them grow even more.

You'll have the support you need from a company that is known for how they treat their people, plus have the autonomy you've been craving to enable you to make your own mark in the industry.

So, if you've had enough of being told what to do by your boss and want to tell ar$$eholes what to do, click apply and let's have a confidential chat.

Who knows where it will take you.
